LTN-Logistics and transit Noumea is a Caledonian transit company. The company is part of the Pacific Gate Logistics Group, which specializes in the Pacific, Asia and USA areas. The group's subsidiaries in France, Tahiti, Australia and New Zealand are attentive to customers and offer them adequate solutions regardless of the type of operations. The group's international presence, as well as the various partnerships with transit agents, enabled LTN to operate both maritime and air cargo on all five continents.

The LTN team consists of 32 employees. All share the values of the company which are reliability, service and customer satisfaction. Thus, the company Caledonian advises customers at all stages of the transit process: handling, transport, customs clearance, warehousing and delivery operations. For each of the services offered, goods follow-up is ensured. Know-how and consultancy, coupled with excellent optimization of means, guarantee competitive rates to the customers of LTN.

The company also offers an Express national and international courier service, via TNT Express New Caledonia. Letters and parcels tracking can be done in real time on Internet.

Today, LTN is growing more and more in the export market. Thanks to its network and international freight expertise, the company provides all types of exports worldwide.
